vessel separating the yacht from the American war ship. The Enterprise arrived in the harbor yesterday morning. The German Emperor was first welcomed by the Grand Duke

Alexis, who was taken to the Hohenzollern in the state barge. As he mounted the ladder to the Hohenzollern's deck,

he was met by the Emperor and warmly embraced. Emperor William and Prince Henry then entered the barge and were rowed to the Russian imperial yacht Alexandra, on which the Czar swaited the arrival of his visitors. The two Emperors met at the gangway and embraced and kissed each other several times. M.

De Giers, the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs; Gen. Von Schweinitz, the German ambassador, and Col. Von Villaume, the military attache of the German embassy at St. Petersburg, were present at the meeting.

During the voyage from Cronstadt to Peterhof

Emperor William conversed at length with M.

De Giers, while the Czar talked with Count Herbert Bismarck, the German Minister of Foreign Affairs. Afterward the two Emperors had a long talk together. No toasts were offered at the state dinner given in bonor of Emperor William at Peterhof. Emperor William afterward went for a drive in company with the Czarina and the Duke and Duchess Vladmir. The whole

the Emperors will inaugurate a new era of peace,

Sr. Petersburg, July 20. - On the arrival of Colquitt, eared te deliver it. Mr. Grady was greatly surprised at the receipt of this letter. but replied at once that another channel would be found through which the invitation would be transmitted. The fact in the case leaked out a day or two ago, and the incident is now the reigning sensation of the capital. Senator Colquitt, in reply to an inquiry as to his motive in declining to deliver the invitation to Mr. Mc-Kinley, said to-day: "Mr. McKinley is a Republican, and we don't want him to preach any of his ideas to our people." The Senator was much surprised to learn that the incident had become known, and declared that it was not a proper subject for public discussion.

Representative Stewart said: "We believed that it was not best to invite a Republican to address our people. He would not agree with us, and his presence would be sure to stir up illfeeling and strife. We have nothing against McKinley personally, but we don't want any Republicans in our country."

Mr. McKinley has nothing to say with regard to the affair, but it is believed by his friends that he will decline the invitation, no matter how presented to him. The action of Senator Colquitt and Representative Stewart is criticised on both sides of the House and Senate, the severest strictures being uttered by Democratic members and Senators. A prominent Democrat said to-day: "It is what you call a bad bresk.' I cannot conceive how Colquitt and Stewart could have made such a blunder. It surely must have been done in a thoughtless moment. There is no man more universally respected and admired on our side of the House than McKinley. In addition to being a statesman be is a scholar, and might most appropriately be present on this occasion. It is altogether likely that he would not have even referred to politics in the whole course of his address if he had consented to deliver one."

OTHER POLITICAL NEWS. Feeling Among Republican Voters in and

About Mt. Carmel.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. Mr. CARMEL, Ill., July 20,-Republicans here heartily approve General Harrison and his splendid speeches, and will show their approval in November, notwithstanding the Democratic lies to the contrary. The report has been current, and generally credited, that the Democrats had a majority of the railroad vote, and the Sentinel lie of the 1877 strike has been thoroughly canvassed. The Mt. Carmel Register, quoting the above lie, said the railroad men were embittered by it to such an extent that Harrison would get very little support. Again, the Democratic Congressman from this district, who is sometimes thought to have said the same thing, is given as authority in the Cincinnati Enquirer for the statement that of the 150 machinists employed in the railroad shops here few would vote for Harrison. statements, somewhat like the Septinel's railroad story, are mere fancies and wishes of what they hope. There are employed in the shops just six machinists, all of whom are solid for Harrison, and sixty in other occupations. Forty-one of the total have signed as members of the club of railroad men favoring Harrison, Morton and the Republican platform. The officers and employes of the offiics and laborers, for whom the lie was designed, utterly refuse to accept it, and will show their sense of justice and deep thought by giving a Republican majority. There are no dissatisfied Republicans, while, if the Democrats are satisfied, they are far from enthusiastic. At a poleraising, two nights since, there were perhaps fifty men, women and children present, and fully one-fourth of those were Republican on-

Enthusiasm in Wayne County. special to the Indianapolis Journal.

RICHMOND, Ind., July 20. - Wayne county has been famous for big Republican meetings from away back, but she never held one "just to get ready" that was a marker to the one held at the Grand Opera-house last night, to organize a Harrison and Morton Club. The spirit of the meeting demonstrated that the participants had been held back too long; that they had been "honing" for some such feast for a long time, and the president had the hardest kind of work to hold them up to the order of business. They wanted to "thuse," and as there were so many things in the course of the evening to suggest an outpreak, it took until way after 10 o'clock to get through with the programme as far as the adoption of the constitution. That done, so as to admit of beginning the enrollment of members, a committee was appointed to prepare by-laws, and another to report permanent officers at a meeting to be held on the 30th inst. In the meanwhile recruits will be added to the club by the hundreds, and it is already an immense one, 609 having signed the list before the meeting adjourned. Besides this, there will be special clubs-a German ciub, an Irish club, a colored club, etc., and it was reported last night that the Germans now have 150 names listed preparatory to their organization.

Hamilton County Republicans. pecial to the Indianapolis Journal

NOBLESVILLE, July 20 .- The Republicans of Hamilton county were never as enthusiastic so early in the campaign as now. Disturbing elements are unknown. The standard-bearers selected at Chicago have aroused all the old-time enthusiasm of the patriotic Republicans of Hamilton. Ben Harrison with the same patriotic zeal that characterized the campaign of 1840. The name Harrison seems to carry with it a sentiment akin to inspiration. Hamilton county can be relied upon for 1,600 majority in November. Arrangements are being made for a large delegation to visit Indianapolis soon and call upon General

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WARSAW, July 20 .- Warsaw has an organizadon known as the Young Men's Republican Club that is one of the most efficient in the State. They have kept it up ever the campaign of 1884, it is now growing at a rapid rate. They have just made arrangments for an excursion to Indianapolis to call on Gen. Ben Harrison. The excursion will be composed first of all those who voted for Gen. Wm. Henry Harrison in 1840; second, the young men who will cast their vote this fall; next, the people generally, including Republicans, Democrats, Greenbackers. Third-party men, colored people, men, women and children. It is thought there will be fully a thousand people on the excursion. It is fixed for Friday, the 27th inst., and will be a Special to the Indiauapolis Journal. SPICELAND, Ind., July 20.-A Harrison club was organized here last night, starting out with a large membership, which will be rapidly increased. The officers are as follows: President, N. P. Nixon; vice-president, L. E. Cloud; secretary, Emory C. Bogue; treasurer, Edgar Evans. The Republicans here are very enthusiastic. Men who beretofore voted other tickets are strong for Harrison. Republicans who did not support Blaine are working hard for Harrison and Morton. In an adjoining township seven men who have heretofore been Democrats have left the party of free trade. Men who voted the third party say they cannot and will not support a rebel ticket; in fact, everything is ensouraging. Republicans here expect to visit General Harrison on the 31st.

Hancock County's Log Cabin.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal GREENFIELD, July 20 .- Greenfield and Haneack county comes to the front, and will have the first log cabin in the State. At the Harrison (lub meeting to-night a motion was carried and terangements made to erect a monster log cabin at once. This cabin will be 60x40 feet, and will accommodate a large audience. When the cabin is built all the auxiliaries, such as the coon, the cider barrel, a liberty pole, etc., will be provided. The buildings and surroundings will be illuminated with natural gas. At the proper time notice will be given, and the "house-warming" dedication will take place. It is proposed to dedicate the "cabin" to Harrison, Morton, Porter, Liberty, Union, Protection, and other good Republican principles.

Jackson County Republicans.

Hohenzollern in honor of the Czar. London, July 21.-The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at St. Petersburg says he is reliably informed that the interview between the Czar and Emperor William was of a most cordial character and that as a result of it Russia will, in future, pursue a pacific policy. He says that there is now no danger of trouble arising regarding Bulgaria. Prince Ferdinand will be allowed to reign, on the ground that it will be impossible for him to retain his position. When the Prince is deposed, Germany will favor any candidate for the Bulgarian throne that may be nominated by Russia.

CONYBEARE'S OFFENSE.

He Writes a Letter to a Newspaper, and Is Suspended from the Commons.

London, July 20.—In the House of Commons to-night, Lord Randolph Churchill asked if Mr. Conybeare was the author of a letter which appeared in the Star to-day, denouncing the speaker for supporting the motion to apply the closure rule in the debate on the Bann drainage bill. The latter, said Lord Randolph, accused the speaker of gross injustice to the minority in the House, of a breach of parliamentary decorum and nothing short of public scandal in assisting the government to suppress debate on a measure which handed to Irish landlords a half a million pounds of English money.

Mr. Conybears admitted writing the letter. Lord Randolph Churchill then moved that Mr. Conybeare be suspended for the remainder of the session. The letter, he said, was a gross libel upon the speaker, and was a grave and deliberate insult to the House.

The speaker said that the applying of closure was the act of the House. He held an absolutely pentral position in the matter, and would leave the affair to the judgement of the House. Mr. Gladstone said that the publication of the letter was distinctly a breach of privilege. Therefore, he supported the motion of Lord Randolph Churchill

Mr. Sexton said that nothing seemed a breach of privilege when committed against an Irish member. As the Irish members were unable to obtain redresss for slanders uttered or written outside of Parliament, he thought it best to leave the English Parliament to settle the dispute among themselves. [Laughter and derisive cheers from the Tories.

Mr. Sexton then withdrew. The motion was adopted by a vote of 245 to 168. An amendment to the motion was afterwards adopted which limited the suspension of Mr.

Conybeare to one month. In an interview to-night Mr. Coneybeare said Mr. John Moriey had advised him to withdraw his letter to the Star, but that be declined to do. He said he would place himself in the hands of his constituents and would resign if they disapproved of his conduct. He protested strongly against the action of the Conservatives in closing debate on the drainage bill, which called upon English tax-payers to give large grants to

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

The Late Mr. Mandeville's Jail Physician Ends Bis Life by Suicide. LONDON, July 20.-Dr. James Ridgeley, the medical officer in attendance at Tullamore jail during Mr. Mandeville's incarceration there, and who was subponned to appear at the inquest, at Mitchelstown, into Mr. Mandeville's death, has committed suicide. Dr. Ridgeley bad been present at the inquest daily, waiting to be called to the witness-stand. The evidence given to show that Mr. Mandeville was subjected to ill-usage while in jail seemed to prey upon his mind. His spicide confirms the popular belief that Mr. Mandeville was cruelly treated by the prison officials. Dr. Ridgeley left a statement regarding the prison treatment of Messrs. O'Brien and Mandeville physician became gradually worse, and died this morning, supposedly of heart disease. Her home was in Black River Falls, Wis., but she

Mr. Romayne, visiting justice, testified that his request that Mr. Mandeville be put in the hospital was disregarded. Dr. Gremin said that bread and water was improper treatment for a person suffering from diarrhoa, and that the illness of the deceased was caused by a sudden change from the normal conditions of life. Foreign Notes. The Vanderbilts have started for home. It is reported that the Shinnwarris have killed sixty men sent with an envoy from the Afghan

THE SUGAR TRADE.

Russian Rulers at St. Petersburg. Wholesale Grocers Seek a Plan Whereby They Will at Least Get Back Their Money. General Belief that the Czar Will in Future Pursue a Policy of Peace-Conybeare's Of-

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. New York, July 20 .- A convention of wholesale grocers, representing nearly every city in the Union, was held here last month with the object of devising means to realize a small margin of profit in the handling of sugars, which now, it is claimed, nets a loss. A committee of eight was appointed, which conferred with the managers of the Sugar Trust, who stated that they were willing to make some arrangement toward meeting the wishes of the grocers, providing refiners outside the trust would agree not to run their rofineries at full capacity. The non-trust refiners were then interviewed, and said they were inclined to be agreeable. Practical results have not been realized, however, and all the refineries in the country are at present running to their utmost capacity. Many of the wholesale grocers who engaged in the movement express the belief that the only remedy for the evils of which they complan lies in an equalization of the tariff on sugars. A lower duty on refining qualities would allow foreign competition in refined grades and cheaper prices, which would benefit the consumer and weaken the power of the com-bination of retiners. However this may be, the grocers feel that though they have gained a nominal concession from the refiners, there has been no tangible victory.

THE LOCAL ISSUES.

The Three Principal Questions of State Importance in the Campaign.

Mary H. Krout, in Chicago Inter Ocean.

The three chief topics of the campaign speaker in Indiana, in the nature of local issues this year, will be the tally-sheet forgeries, the Insane Hospital scandal, and the disregard of civilservice rule in the appointment and removal of officials. The details of all have been thoroughly discussed, but it will be necessary to re fresh the public mind, so that a clear idea of the situation may be had. Your correspondent called upon Capt. Eli Ritter yesterday, and found him willing to go over the tally-sheet case, upon which he was prepared to speak authoritatively. When election frauds

finally became too glaring a committee of one hundred was formed, composed of Republicans, Democrats of the better class, independents, and Prohibitionists—men of all political opinions who favored the protection of the ballot and the enforcement of the law. Captain Ritter was employed by the committee as its attorney. He is an able lawyer, a genial and courteous gentleman, and performed his duty well. The committee was chosen at a mass-meeting held at the court-house when the forgeries were discovered, after the canvass of the Marion county vote, two days after the election in November, 1886. It will be remembered that when the tally-sheets for five precincts in the city were presented to the board of canvassers the documents showed that they had been tampered with. The tallies for William Irvin, candidate for criminal udge, had been erased, as well as figures and writing, a reduction made in his vote, and an increase in that of his opponent, Albert F. Ayers, sufficient to give a majority. "The purpose of the committee of one hundred," said Captain Ritter, "was to ascertain who had committed these forgeries upon the tally-sheets. About one month after its organization, in my capacity as counsel, an affidavit was filed before United States Commissioner W. A. Van Buren, charging Simeon Coy. W. F. A. Bernhamer, Henry W. Spaan, and John H. Counselman, with the offense. During the progress of the investigation, upon affidavit, Samuel E. Perkins, finding that he was surrounded by the evidence, made an admission to me of his connection with the business, and named the other parties whom he connected with the conspiracy. Afterward he refused to testify and was sent to jail. His case came up as a habeas-corpus proceeding be-fore Judge William A. Woods, of the United States District Court, who affirmed the ruling of the commissioner, leaving Perkins in jail. Perkins appealed to Judge Gresham, who released him, deciding that the United States court had no jurisdiction over the offense charged and, therefore, could not compel Perkins to testify. Afterward the United States grand jury returned an indictment against eleven persons, including the four charged in the affidavit. They were arrested, tried in the United States Court, before Judge Woods, and found guilty. Coy was sent to prison and instituted habeas-corpus proceeding, which was presented to Judge Gresham. He declined to hear the case, which was tried on appeal before Justice John M. Harlan, in Indianapolis. Justice Harlan decided that the United States Court had jurisdiction and that the indictment charged an offense. Then a trial was had and the jury disagreed, standing seven Democrats for acquittal and five Republicans for conviction. They divided strictly on a party line. A second trial was had of three persons among those indicted, Coy, Bernhamer, and Stephen Mattier. On the second trial Coy and Bernhamer were convicted by the jury, which stood seven Republicans to five Democrats, and Mattler was acquitted, being considered less guilty than the others. Judgment was pronounced on the verdict, and Bernhamer was given one year in the penitentiary and $1,000 fine. Coy received one year and a half and a fine of $100. Coy and Bernhamer presented the question of jurisdiction again. It came up before the Su-ably take place in the fall. Bernhamer and Coy were sent to the penitentiary in June, and are now serving out their terms. Coy was the proprietor of a flourishing Washington-street saloon, spent his money liberally, and had almost absolute power over the lower strata of Democratic voters. He was constitutionally opposed to everything that was honest and decent in his own party as well as out of it. He defiled the law so long that he became too arro gant and offensive to be longer endured even by respectable Democrats. His punishment is just sentence pronounced upon one of the most dangerous demagogues and corruptionists that has ever flourished in this State, which, unfortunately, has been cursed with many. Bernhamer was more sly and cunning, but also ruled his creatures with a rod of iron. He has been described as a human reptile. Perkins is still in Indianapolis execrated by his party. He testified in each trial in behalf of the prosecution. giving the details of the work and the names of those who were engaged in it. He has been abused without stint, both by Democrats individually and by the Sentinel in its most abusive manner. It is not surprising that he did not vote the Democratic ticket in the spring and will hardly do so this fall. It is men of the Coy and Bernhamer and Green Smith type who have brought the name of Indiana into disrepute. They have outraged the law and liberty. They have controlled the Legislature for four years and have backed it up in the conspiracies and violence which it has undertaken on a larger scale, and in which it has been partly successful. The complete overthrow of so base a despotism was a triumph for the Republican party-a fitting forerunner of the greater triumph which it is destined to win in November.

A Novel Lawsuit Now Pending in the Knox Circuit Court-Mrs. Wilson's Adventures in Men's Clothes-Notes and Gleanings.

INDIANA.

Peculiar Lawsuit, Which Will Vex the Circuit Court of Knox County. Special to the Indianapolis Journal

VINCENNES, July 20. - One of the most peculiar cases on record has just been appealed to the Circuit Court. It was brought before 'Squire Jackson, of this city, on a change of venue from 'Squire Dunn, of Bruceville, this county, where the parties live. Some time ago, Robert Hedges and wife Carrie, took board and lodging with M. S. Boyd. Hedges and Boyd had frequent transactions together, and everything seemed to be satisfactory in their business relations. At length, Mr. Hedges concluded to dwell in ahouse by himself, and so settled in full, as he thought, with Mr. Boyd for boarding. His last payment to Boyd, was 12 cents for stamps, and receipts were given. Time went on, and as neighbors Mrs. Hedges visited Mrs. Boyd, and the two men rendered each other neighborly favors. At leugth. Boyd presented a bill to Hedges of $14.70 for payment. Hedges, on the ground that they had had a settlement and that he owed nothing, refused to pay the bill. Boyd brought suit against Robert and Carrie Hedges for the money, in the court of 'Squire Dunn, of Bruceville.
The case was decided sgainst Boyd, Hedges having filed a counter bill, and Boyd was to pay the costs, $30.05, and a judgment of $25. Then the case was brought on a change of venue before Squire Jackson, of this city. Here the bills came to light and are given here as an illustration of humanity and as a curiosity. Boyd's bill against Hedges reads as follows:

Robert Hedges to Matthew S. Boyd, Dr. For board to his visitors within the year, while 1.00 Use of grindstone..... One riding whip..... Account of Mr. Wiley paid Hedges, to hand to me by Hedges..... The bill presented by Hedges to offset this bill M. S. Boyd to Robert and Carrie Hedges, Dr. To Carrie Hedges, for work, sixty weeks, at per day.....

Dressirg saws.
Cash paid for hominy..... Box rent at postoffice..... By time lost by Carrie, while sick, four weeks. $5.00 Attention while sick $7.50

Total......$12.50 Balance due Robert and Carrie Hedges.... Esquire Jackson gave the defendant, Hedges, $2.20, the plaintiff paying the costs. The case has been appealed to the Circuit Court. The oddity of the contest has caused a great deal of comment, Boyd's bill has received special criti-

Why She Were Men's Clothes. Special to the Indianapolis Journal VINCENNES, July 20 .- A strange woman was arrested here last night, dressed in male attire. She was on board of the south-bound train, and out of money. The conductor suspected her and notified the police. When interviewed, she said: "I put on men's clothes to avoid insult, and to shun suspicion as to who I am. I am from Chicago, but my home is in Brownsville, Pa., and my name is Crystal Wilson. I have worn men's clothes about six months. I had a purpose, and I am now on my way back. I was married about a year ago, and my husband went off with another woman, and I followed them. At Galveston, Tex., I shot him three times, and he told them not to lynch me, as I was his wife, and that saved me. His wounds were not fatal. His name is George Wilson. My father is a goverment official." She will not tell her father's name. She said she pawned a gold chain and watch for money to pay her fare here. She said she got on the train at Pimento, a small station this side of Terre Haute. She is eighteen, is medium-sized, rather good looking, has black hair cut short, weighs 125 pounds, has a feminine voice, and passes well for a boy. She does rot seem to be depraved, for she acts like a lady and uses pure, clean language. She seems to be of good family. She takes her arrest philosophically. She will be placed in charge of the Humane Society, who will fit her out in women's apparel and send her home.

The Death of Mr. Walsh.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal GREENFIELD, July 20.—If, as is supposed, the death of James J. Walsh resulted from the effects of chloral, the drug was not taken with suicidal intent, but with the intention of securing rest and relief from the spasms with which he was occasionally seized. It is also possible that he died from the effects of one of these spasms. Mr. Walsh was two years ago the Democratic candidate for joint Representative of Marion. Hancock and Shelby counties, and was defeated by Sid Conger, and was not a candidate for the Senate, as stated this morning. He will be buried to-morrow at the cemetery here.

He bears an unenviable reputation, and the case against him is very strong.

Minor Notes. E. J. Scott and M. M. Binford, ministers of the Quaker Church, have begun a series of gospel meetings at Greenfield, holding their services in a large tent erected for the purpose. Mrs. Mary Jefferson, charged with stealing goods from the Orphaus' Home at Wabash, was arrested yesterday at Marion. The stealings of the prisoner amounted to from $50 to $100. Mrs. Jefferson was taken back to Wabash for trial. She was connected with the home and fled when her thieving was discovered. On Thursday, Miss Ella Bressler, of Fort Wayne, committed suicide by taking morphine. While every effort was being made to revive her she awoke long enough to say "morphine," and that she was tired of life and did not want to endure any more trouble. She was twentyfour years of age.

CLEVELAND, O., July 20.-A special from Findlay, O., says that great excitement rages again in the oil territory in that vicinity by the discovery of an oil well that exceeds anything yet struck. It is estimated that the flow at present is from 7,000 to 10,000 barrels per day. The well will probably produce 3,000 barrels when the first pressure is off. Another well on the same farm yelds 10,000 barrels daily.

It is Absurd

For people to expect a cure for Indigestion, unless they refrain from eating what is unwholesome; but if anything will sharpen the appetite and give tone to the digestive organs, it is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Thousands all over the land testify to the merits of this medicine.

Mrs. Sarah Burroughs, of 248 Eighth street, South Boston, writes: "My husband has taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla, for Dyspepsia and torpid liver, and has been greatly benefited."

A Confirmed Dyspeptic.

C. Canterbury, of 141 Franklin st., Boston, Mass., writes, that, suffering for years from Indigestion, he was at last induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla and, by its use, was entirely cured.

Mrs. Joseph Aubin, of High street, Holyoke, Mass., suffered for over a year from Dyspepsia, so that she could not eat substantial food, became very weak, and was unable to care for her family. Neither the medicines prescribed by physicians, nor any of the remedies advertised for the cure of Dyspepsia, helped her, until she commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. "Three bottles of this medicine," she writes. "cured me."
